

Teaching Testimonial

Mallory has taught me so much in the two years that I have worked with her for private vocal coaching. Her dedication to classical voice technique has helped me grow exponentially as a soprano singer. Mallory has a keen eye for detail and musicality.

Mallory has provided me with a range of techniques and tools to help cultivate my voice. Her graduate background in vocal pedagogy and passion for teaching shines through in her vast knowledge of the voice. She has a lot of helpful warm-up and recovery drills as well and rehabilitation techniques. Mallory is a master of mix-voice for sopranos and has helped me bridge my passaggi more than any other teacher in my life.

Mallory has helped me prepare audition material for Broadway and NYU auditions. She also taught me Italian phonetics and diction, classical trills and vocalises, theory, and sight-singing. Mallory's persistence and attention to detail have helped me pick up on a range of repertoire and techniques in a small amount of time.

I would recommend that students study with Mallory for private voice training, college audition coaching, audition coaching, and musical theatre acting through song! Her talent as a performer and her beautiful voice is inspiring to all of her students.

She is truly a delightful person to work with. I look forward to seeing her every week for our lessons. Her charisma, zesty personality, and sense of humor brightens my day. She is extremely professional and pushed me to challenge myself vocally and musically. I look up to Mallory for industry advice. She is passionate and encouraging.
